CENTRAL EUROPE ON WAR'S BRINK

LONDON, Oct. 24. —An unverified report that former Emperor Charles of Austria has been assassinated has been received by the Exchange Telegraph company.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 24. —1 a. m. (By the Associated Press) — Hungarian government forces, fighting against the attempt of former Emperor Charles to regain the throne, have won pronounced successes against the Carlist forces. It was announced in reports to the government early today. The reports stated that the town of Raab had been recaptured and that the Carlists were being attacked in the rear.

This attack it was stated, was being led by Baron Pronay at the head of the West Hungarian insurgents who had hurried to the government's aid.

Other reports that hand grenade fighting had begun after midnight near Torbagy, 30 miles from Budapest.

Government circles were greatly heartened by the news of the recapture of Raab, and that of the operations of Baron Pronay.

Great Britain prepares to take a hand in expulsion of the former King from Hungary. The border nations assemble their troops to be sent against Charles should he succeed in getting possession of Government at Budapest.

AGGIES LOSE TO VET. SAGEHENS

Saturday was an ideal football day and the usual record crowd were on hand at 3 o'clock at the kickoff between the Nevada U. and the Aggies.

Our boys got the ball and rolled the Navadians up to the 20 yard line when Falck missed a drop kick. It was plain to see after that that the Aggies were up against veterans at the game.

Our men made enough gains and did good enough work to beat any ordinary team, but luck was against them. Their work was as good if not better than that of the Nevada team.

In the second period the Aggies completely outplayed the Sagehens, as at the start, and they had the ball at the 3 yard line when the quarter ended.

The entire game was played by that little "nymph" Bradshaw for Nevada. He has a faculty of running like a streak of lightning and about as straight. Our boys stopped him several times, but he made the trip alone in every instance except one, and was practically responsible for the entire six touchdowns.

He was a spectacular player, which thrilled the lover of football even though our boys lost.

Chick Hart and Andy Caffey broke up many of their fine plays with their alert tackle, but the big sagehens were too much for them.

Hart, the crack Aggie end received a broken nose in the third quarter.

Andy Caffey received injuries in his back and was removed to a local hospital.

Eddie Reed, Scranton, a former Elko high school star; Middleton and Foster for Nevada all played brilliant football and formed a good combination around the brilliant Bradshaw.

The lineup and summary:
Nevada U. Utah Aggies

Conroy, Reynolds.

Men who are Making Logan

THE CRANNEY MOTOR CO. STORES MORE CARS THAN ANY OTHER GARAGE IN CACHE VALLEY

A. E. CRANNEY

Mr. A. E. Cranney is the President and General Manager of the Cranney Motor Company, and handles the Hup and Marmon Cars and the famous Mack Truck. At his spacious garage on First North Street these cars are shown to advantage in his large show room, and at this stand he runs a general garage and Auto repairing business. At this garage he stores more cars than any other garage in Cache Valley.

Mr. Cranney was born in Logan in 1870 and has spent his entire life in this community. His father was one of the early settlers having selected Cache Valley for his home in 1862.

He also handles the Every Ready Battery, a genuine little bundle of electric fire that puts real life into any car to which it is attached. At this popular stand Mr. Cranney has enjoyed a substantial business.

Once a year he goes to his ranch in Lincoln County, Wyoming and hunts for big game. Elk, the antlered herd, is not only what he hunts but what he gets. An all round good citizen worthy the confidence and support of his fellows is our good friend A. E. Cranney.

LOGAN STAKE CONFERENCE

The Logan Stake Quarterly conference was held on Saturday and Sunday in the Tabernacle. There was a good attendance and the people were inspired by the words of Apostle Geo. A. Smith of Salt Lake City. In the Sunday morning session, Apostle Smith expressed his pleasure at attending services at which the spirit of the Lord is present and holy influences prevail. We have much to be grateful for, and the speaker was truly thankful for the blessings which he, in common with his brethren and sisters, was permitted to enjoy. He felt that it was ordained that we should come to earth. We are children of the Lord and not as some assume, the natural descendants of the orang outang. As someone had remarked, the speaker was determined they should not connect him with their family tree. Our aim is the eternal truth to which we will cling and not stray off into vague speculation.

Apostle Smith expressed gratitude for the learned men we have in our midst and spoke highly of the big school on the hill as conveying to our children the knowledge that will properly help them.

The speaker during his talk called attention to the saying of one of the early church leaders that the line of demarcation between right and wrong is well defined. One side of that line is God's territory; the other side is the devil's. It is our duty and privilege to take advantage of our opportunities by remaining permanently on the Lord's side. With our opportunities and knowledge we are indeed without excuse if we stray from the fold. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness," should be our animating spirit. As to us much has been given, so much will be required of us.

"Well done good and faithful servant" was his closing prayer.

FUNERAL HELD FOR WAR HERO

A large congregation gathered at the tabernacle on Sunday in the capacity of funeral services for Wilford B. Anderson, one of Logan's soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice on the battle fields of France. The services were of a military order, a guard of honor being provided, consisting of H. W. Brangham, Carl Crookston, Albert Cooper, Fred W. Marshall and Parley L. Larson.

The ladies of the Service Star Legion attended in a body and conveyed the many lovely floral offerings. The hall was draped in the national colors and no detail of arrangement was spared in the homage paid the memory of this American soldier.

The opening prayer was offered by Oscar Rice, followed by singing by the A. C. Quartet. Mr. C. R. Johnson, Calvin Fletcher, Chas. O. Peterson and Frank Kennard.

Pres. Jos. E. Quinney was the first speaker, he dwelt on the integrity of the family, their loyalty and their patriotism. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson had six sons in the service and Mr. Quinney said that Mr. Anderson had made the remark that if more men were needed that he also would go. He spoke of the great sacrifice they had made and blessed them for their faith and courage.

Geo. A. Smith, of Salt Lake City, spoke of his trip to Europe and the visiting of the devastated country in France and Belgium. He told of the graves of the soldiers, row upon row of white crosses and said how well cared for they were, that grass and flowers grew upon them and that they were all well marked that even in Germany the graves of American soldiers were well cared for, a tribute to the valor and bravery of our American boys.

Musical numbers were given by Miss Edna Crowther, who sang "O Dry Those Tears", and Mr. Frank Baugh, Sr., who rendered "Bury Me Near the Old Home."

The benediction was offered by Elder Noah Larson.

At the cemetery Bishop Cranney dedicated the grave and the final salute was fired by the guard of honor and Oliver Edwards sounded taps.

B. Y. C. EDUCATION CONVENTION

The Brigham Young College for the whole of last week and the teachers in a body supported the Church Teachers Convention and the Utah Educational Association. Only three of its members failed to be in attendance at the convention. These three were officially excused. All were back and ready for work this morning.

Not only did the teachers attend the convention, but the College at considerable expense sent the orchestra, under the direction of Professor Otte and a double mixed quartet under the direction of Professor Robinson and Miss Eulalia Lee as a soloist. These organizations furnished all the music for the Teachers Convention and were invited as special guests of the Newhouse Hotel where they played a number of selections. Superintendent Bennion of the Convention in complimenting the performers remarked that the Brigham Young College had certainly set a standard in its music that it would be well for the other schools to follow. Professors Richard R. Lyman, John A. Widtsoe and Melvin J. Ballard also took occasion to compliment the music department of the B. Y. C.

We are very sorry to report the death of Mrs. Clara M. Griffiths, the wife of Geo. Griffiths of Benson. Mrs. Griffiths underwent an operation at a local hospital here on Tuesday, Oct. 18th. She passed away early Sunday morning. She leaves a husband, two grown daughters, Mabel and Erma. She has a sister living in Canada and funeral arrangements are being deferred until word is received from her.

RAILWAY STRIKE TO FIZZLE OUT

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. —(By the Associated Press) —The United States railroad labor board announced that it had great reason to hope that the strike will be averted.

The formal announcement of the board warned the public to refrain from loose talk and provocative language about either side of the controversy. The announcement said:

"There is great reason to hope that the strike will be averted. The railroad labor board has settled 700 disputes between the railroads and their employees in about a year and a half. Many of these disputes contained the possibilities of strikes or lock-outs.

"The board is anxious to get the present dispute out of the way in order that the restoration of sound business conditions may proceed.

"All good Americans should refrain from loose talk and provocative language about either side of the controversy. Neither of the parties should be alarmed or irritated by unwarranted denunciation or insinuation from irresponsible sources."

MR. ROSENBLATT GIVES FACTS

Nearly one hundred members of the Chamber of Commerce attended the luncheon meeting on Friday evening at the Hotel Eccles where Mr. M. S. Rosenblatt, general manager of the Utah Steel Corporation was the principal speaker.

Mr. Rosenblatt showed what the steel industry had done for Pittsburgh and Birmingham and the same could be done for Utah with the proper development. In some ways Utah is better situated for the production of steel than Pittsburgh or Birmingham in that the raw materials are closer at hand in larger abundance. The possibilities of Utah as a steel center are great and some large eastern companies which are large users of pig iron have promised to build factories at Salt Lake City and provided the Utah Steel Corporation can furnish the necessary pig iron. When the rust iron and coal met at Birmingham, Alabama, there were only 30,000 population. Today this city has a population of over 230,000. As the use of steel increases, civilization advances and great commonwealths are built.

Mr. Rosenblatt stated that he had been informed that approximately three million tons of high grade ore existed at Mineral Point south of Paradise. If that is the case, the Utah Steel Corporation will be glad to open up the deposit and use the ore. "However, it will be necessary to have competent mining engineers make some thorough and extensive tests at the Mineral Point before any definite announcements can be made," said Mr. Rosenblatt.

At the close of the talk a number of questions were asked Mr. Rosenblatt about the steel industry and how steel is made. He stated in all the steel mills from forty to sixty percent of the steel is made from scrap iron. With the development of the Utah Steel Corporation it is the intention to use more iron ore and not so much scrap iron.

The principal entertaining feature of the evening was the two dances by the little ten year old daughter, Afton, of Mr. Frank Harris. The first dance was entitled "Coaxing the flowers", and the next number was an Oriental dance. Little Miss Harris has wonderful ability and graceful movements. Her accompaniment was a large Edison and never once was she out of step or time. She has much natural ability and should be encouraged.

The Eccles hotel management is to be congratulated for the very fine menu served. Mr. W. R. Sloan acted as chairman and he kept things lively all the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goss announce the birth of a son on Saturday. All concerned doing nicely.
